DODGERS AGAIN DEFEAT GIANTS AND SENATORS TRIUMPH OVER YANKEES

GIANTS LOSE WHEN BURNS DROPS FLY

Error Sends In Two Runs and Gives Dodgers Victory, Score 3 to 1

Between Smith and Toney.

By DANIEL.

It was a bit difficult to convince the Giants and a great many of the 15,000 onlookers, too, that it was the old Brook- how, here they are lyn club which faced the New Yorks at Ebbets Field yesterday afternoon, and, ncidentally, defeated them again by 3 to 1. As Hughey Jennings rubbed his eyes in imitation of Rip Van Winkle and looked in vain for the Doolittles and the Vedders who only a few days back had dubbed around against the Braves he was more than astounded. Surely there was Frank Chance at his best on first, with Eddie Collins at secend-none other than the great Ed Williamson cavorting around short, with Jimmy Collins at third. Surely Cobb, Speaker and Roush were out there in the field—and Hughey rubbed his optics time and again, while hundreds rubbed with him and gasped.

But it was the Dodgers, sure enough, who were out there giving imitations of the Titans of the past and present behind the left handed pitching of Sherrod Smith. The Brooklyns leaped as high next Saturday, but from our amat as possible for balls which were speeding as possible for balls when were spectrus for hits—they went as low as impossible to scoop and dig them out of the Flat-bush soil like clams—they scampered hither and thither, here, there and everywhere, to rob Giant after Giant of

Like Men Inspired.

It was positively uncanny the way those Dodgers played in the field. With all due respect to the fact that they won the pennant last season, they reminded us of a racer which had been given a dash of heroin in his hay preliminary to a big stake. The Brooklyns played like h big stake. The Brooklyns played like men inspired and as they can play only when they go against the Giants.

Still, with all the fizzing Dodger deeds on the diamond the Brooklyns probably would have got no better than a tie in regulation time if it had not a tie in regulation time if it had not been for a momentous event—something like the reappearance of Halley's comet, and likely to happen about as often. George Burns dropped a fiy! This error, which came with two out and runners on first and second in the third inning, let both tailles trickle over the plate and rulned the Glants for the second day in succession. It is set down that George did something of that sert back in his state League days up at Utica on the State League days up at Utica on the afternoon when Perry won the battle of Lake Frie.

A pitcher with a sore arm is about as useful as an undertaker at a wedon which Burns fell down. Against ninetenths of the other left fielders in the game that rap from the bat of Griffith would have gone for a three base hit. But Eurns travelled back to the fence like a Paddock and just did manage to make a remarkable catch high over his head.
He held the ball momentarily, then let it slip to the turf, putting Griffith on second and Olson and Johnston over the pan. It was tough luck—the man, the moment, the place and the game.

A pitcher with a sore arm is about as useful as an undertaker at a wedding. There is more than one twirier who is hoping for a few hot days to fricassee his wing into proper condition.

The Piping Rock Club has added ten acres to its golf course. When we played there we thought that there already was plenty of room to lose a ball.

Ruth and Kelly should copyright their home run stuff. Players on opposing clubs are stealing it.

Old Hard Luck Shows Up.

Fred Toney, who went the route for the Giants and pitched scintillating ball in the pinches, started that third in brilliant style. He fanned both Miller and Smith. On top of this came trouble. Olson banged a single off Toney's shins and Johnston hammered a single to centre—his sixteenth hits in six games. Upcame Griffith and Hard Luck walloped the clients good and plenty.

the Clants good and plenty.

The New Yorks got their lone counter in the fifth, and it took three hits and an out to turn the trick. Toney hit the right field fence, but the Behemoth got no more than one base. Burns drove a hit to centre and Eancroft beat out a hit to Johnston. to centre and Eancroft beat out a hit to Johnston, filling the bases with only one down. Frisch was thrown out by Smith, Toney scoring. King drove a fly to Wheat—and the big chance was gone. Brooklyn's third run was acquired through an unfailing medium in the eighth inning. Griffith, first up, hit the first pitch over the right field fence for a home run. If it had not been for the Burns muff that would have been the tieing run and maybe we would be out there yet.

In the minth Rapp walked and Snyder beat out a hit to Olson. Rapp stole third, but Patterson, batting for Toney, struck out and Burns sent a fly to Griffith to start the rush for the exits.

FLETCHER NOT TO RETURN.

cial Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD Special Despatch to THE New York Herman PHILADELPHIA, April 26. — President John A. Heydier of the National League, on his way from the West to New York, announced here to-day that Capt Art Fletcher of the Phillies had positively decided to retire from baseball. Heydier visited Fletcher at the latter's home in Collinsville. Ill., on Sunday and tried to persuade the former Giant infielder to return to the game. Floccher's refusal was based on the successive deaths of his brother and father and his dislike for travel. for travel.

EDDIE ROUSH SIGNS.

Cincinnati, April 26.—Eddie Roush, holdout centrefielder of the Cincinnati National League Club, to-day signed his contract to play with the Cincinnati Reds. He telephoned to President August Herrmann from his Indiana farm that he had signed and would join the team in St. Louis Thursday.

The contract calls for one year's service. Roush had demanded $20,000 a year and a three-year contract. The signing of Roush leaves Henry Groh cas the only Red houldout.

THE American polo team has some fifty ponies in training in England. This seems an ample number when it is considered that a polo team consists of only four men, but they may all be needed. The English team is apt to have as many as sixty-four mounts in readiness.

Two men on each team are pretty sure of their places. The backs are almost certain to be Devereaux Milburn for America and Major Vivian Lockett for the defenders of the cup. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., is apt to be found at No. 2 for the challengers and Lord Woodhouse at No. 3 for England.

It should be a hard fought match.

TWO BASEBALL TEAMS.

Someone in Gioversville, N. Y., sent us a couple of batting orders, with no further information than that they were "made up in George Burns's poolroom." They appear to be selections for a couple of all star teams. Any-

QUITE A GATHERING.

We think that 40,000 is a big crowd at a baseball game, but 100,000 enthusiasts turned out to witness the recent match for the English Association football championship. Some of the spectators walked miles through a cold rain to witness the battle for the title, which was won by the Tottenham Hot-

Old man John Bull may be worrying a trifle over the quality of the invaders who are after his amateur title, but old man John Ball may yet prove a tough bird to down on his home links. What if he is old enough to remember the days when Cæsar invaded Britain? He still can sock that golf ball

The only sign that age is creeping up on John Ball is that he sometimes finds it difficult to remember whether 70 is his age or his average score.

It is charged that an oil lobby backed Colombia. By rewriting a single letter the thing could have been made of benefit to a home industry. If an oil lobby could be induced to back Columbia the university could build that new stadium.

Pat Shea Goes to Sox After All

PAT SHEA, the pitcher, is to join the White Sox after all. He is on his way to Chicago. Shea was released by the Glants to the White Sox under the interleague waiver rule. He was purchased last year by the New York club from Toronta for $12,000, but it appears the paying of that amount was an obligation the White Sox didn't care to assume. So the White Sox decided they didn't want Shea. But the managedidn't want Shea. But the manage-ment of the Glanta considered a bar-gain a bargain, and assigned the Shea contract to the White Soz and di-rected the pitcher to report to that
